

CENTRE FOR SOUTH ASIAN LEGAL STUDIES

COMITY • PEACE • PROSPERITY

ABOUT US

The study of law cannot be undertaken in an isolated room. The issues and problems with which today's societies are conflicting have to be taken into consideration when we step into the realm of law. The Centre for South Asian Legal Studies (CSALS) is therefore committed to examine and analyse these issues of utmost relevance while having a comparative approach with the jurisdictions of South Asian Region. The problems of South Asia are common in many disciplines and also in many facets of social, legal and political life. Therefore, any attempt to understand the real issues of this region would be fruitless and irrelevant if a holistic attempt is not made. The Centre is, hence, focused to this approach of legal methodology.

The Centre for South Asian Legal Studies (CSALS) of Geeta Institute of law is paramount pace towards the research arena. The centre is working under the guidance of Dr. Dharmender Patial, Professor & Dean, Geeta Institute of Law Panipat, Delhi-NCR. The centre pitch on to conduct a variety of activities such as organizing conferences, seminars, lectures/talks, workshop, educational visits, parliamentary debate, MUN, essay competition, conducting survey, panel discussion, student and faculty exchange programme, research projects performances and screening with a multi disciplinary approach in order to open the door for intellectual exchange of interests.

VISION

This centre has been established with an aim:
