

CENTRE FOR ARBITRATION AND MEDIATION

EFFICACY • SOLUTION • FACILITATION

ABOUT US

The Centre for Arbitration & Mediation (CAM) has been established under the guidance of Dr. Dharmender Patial, Professor & Dean, Geeta Institute of Law, Panipat, Delhi-NCR to promote students' interest in Alternative Dispute Resolution constituting dispute resolution methods like Arbitration, Negotiation, Mediation and Conciliation. These methods gained momentum in the country in past few decades & with the efforts of Legal Services Authorities under the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987, and other initiatives, ADR mechanisms have now become apart of Indian justice delivery system. These dispute resolution methods, though more economical and faster are not yet very popular among common Indian masses. The ultimate objective of the Centre is to strengthen ADR mechanism in the country by emerging as a platform for students to further their interests in the field.

VISION

The centre of Arbitration & Mediation (CAM) has established with the aim to encourage the settlement of disputes by way of negotiations, arbitration and conciliation.

- To lay down policies and principles for making legal services available in the conduct of any case before the court, any authority or tribunal.
- To frame most effective and economical schemes for the purpose.
- To utilize funds at its disposal and allocate them to the State and District Authorities appointed under the Act.
- To undertake research in the field of legal services.
- To recommend to the Government grant-in-aid for specific schemes to voluntary institutions for implementation of legal services schemes.
- To develop legal training and educational programmes with the Bar Councils and establish legal services clinics in Universities, Law Colleges and other institutions.
- To act in coordination with governmental and non-governmental agencies

OBJECTIVES

The Centre for Arbitration & Mediation (CAM) DRC has not limited its vision to law students alone, rather it has a greater objective of making the common masses aware of ADR, especially Mediation, Arbitration and Lok Adalats as an alternative to the traditional court based litigation. The centre members, while explaining the residents the merits and Demerits of ADR, encourage them to exercise these methods of dispute resolution wherever possible.

The main object of the Centre:

- To encourage the settlement of disputes by way of negotiations, arbitration and conciliation.
- To lay down policies and principles for making legal services available in the conduct of any case before the court, any authority or tribunal.
- To frame most effective and economical schemes for the purpose.
- To utilize funds at its disposal and allocate them to the State and District Authorities appointed under the Act.
- To undertake research in the field of legal services.
- To recommend to the Government grant-in-aid for specific schemes to voluntary institutions for implementation of legal services schemes.
- To develop legal training and educational programmes with the Bar Councils and establish legal services clinics in universities, law colleges and other institutions.
- To act in coordination with governmental and non-governmental agencies engaged in the work of promoting the cause of legal services.
